RESOLUTIONS OF THE GHANA BAR ASSOCIATION PASSED AT ITS 2017/2018 ANNUAL CONFERENCE HELD IN SUNYANI
FROM 11th TO 15th SEPTEMBER 2017

WE THE MEMBERS OF THE GHANA BAR ASSOCIATION, HEREIN ASSEMBLED AT THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE BAR, at the EUSBETT INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE CENTRE, Sunyani, in the Brong Ahafo Region, stand in harmony with the objectives of the Government and People of Ghana for the promotion of freedom and justice.

RECOGNISING that the principle of the rule of law ensures access to justice and sustainable development.

ACKNOWLEDGING that democracy thrives in an environment of the rule of law and efficient administration of justice.

EMPHASISING the havoc being wrecked on our environment by illegal mining, illegal logging of timber, the pollution of our water bodies, and the decimation of our vegetative and forest cover.

NOTING the essential role of the Legal Profession in the economic, political and social advancement of the country and in the fight against the Scourge of Corruption and Environmental Degradation.

ASSERTING the vital role the Legal Profession plays in the administration of justice and strengthening the growth of state institutions in our country.

CONSCIOUS of the falling ethical standards within the Legal Profession and the need to take vigorous steps to rectify this anomaly through education, training and appropriate regulations.

MINDFUL of the critical role of the Bar in nation building and the need to jealously guard its independence as well as to ensure its social relevance.
